News Notes and Gossip of Washington Smart Set

Many Entertainments Are Planned by the Leaders of

The President and Mrs. Wilson were hosts last evening for the second of the two diplomatic dinners of the White House season. The German ambassador, Count von Bernstorff, was the ranking guest, and the ensixty. The dinner paralleled in brildor and the representatives of the allies as the principal grests.

Mrs. Wilson were one of the handsomest toilettes in her trousseau, it was of white satin, the gown embroidered and further embellished with silver lace. Silver lace and tulle formed the low cut bodiec, and a train gave grace and distinction to the short, full skirt, which showed dainty silver slippers.

Pink snatdragons and maidenhair ferns decorated the horseshoe shaped table set in the state dining room. Those present were the President and Mrs. Wilson, the imperial German ambassador, the Ambassador of Brazil and bassador, the Ambassador of Brazil and Mme, da Gama, the Ambassador of Spain and Mme, Riano, the Ambassador of Chile and Mme, Suarez-Mulica, the Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing, the minister of Portugal, the Minister of Switzerland and Mme, Ritter, the Minister of Norway and Mme, Bryn, the Minister of Coryan and Mme, de Pena, the minister of Guatemala, the Minister of Sweden and Mme, Ekengren, the minister of Sweden and Mme, Ekengren, the minister of Sweden and Mme, Ekengren, the minister of Tengrap Mrs. Nathan T. Bryan Mrs. Nathan T. Bryan Mrs.

Kern, Congressman and Mrs. James R. Mann, the Charge d'Affaires of Turkey and Mme, Hussein Bey, the charge d'Affaires of Austria-Hungary, the Charge d'Affaires of Argentina and Mme, Quintana, the charge d'affaires of Charge the charge d'affaires of Congresses and Mrs. Mms. Quintana, the charge d'affaires of Greece, the charge d'affaires of Colombia, the Second Assistant Secretary of State, the Third Assistant Secretary of State, the director general of the Pan-American Union, Mr. and Mrs. Rolfe E. Bolling, Miss Nona McAdoo, Miss Bertha Bolling, Miss Maude E. Clark, Miss Wilson, Miss Helen Woodrow Bones, at home today, Mrs. Redfield will be Metrille A Clark and Lioux Education.

After dinner Miss Maude E. Clark and McIville A. Clark, harpists, played. Their program included "Mazurka," by Schuecker: "Patroulile," by Hasselmans: "Song Without Words," by Hoelzel, played by Mr. Clark, and "Winter," by Thomas: "Fantasie in B Major," by Miss Clark, Jointly they played "Midsummer Night's Dream," by Mendelssohn, and "Fleurette," by Rogers.

At the home of Mrs. Edward Pratt, Mrs. Incheon which Miss Docothy Adams gave today.

Mrs. Sweet, Mrs. Edward Pratt, Mrs. Incheon which Miss Docothy Adams gave today.

Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett and Kitty Steele Barrett, who went to water. Va. to attend the wed water. Va. to attend the wed Miss Lila Waller Barrett and of the Cairo, which was decorated for the occasion with flags and ferns. The guests were received by Miss M. J. Hamsey, regent; Mrs. M. G. Allen, vice regent; Mrs. J. F. At the home of Mrs. John Jav White. Dream." by Mendelss rette," by Rogers.

Kauffmann is entertaining at tea this afternoon. Mrs. Cone Johnson and Mrs. W. W. Harts will preside at the tea table, Mrs. Hampson Gary will be at the punch bowl and others assisting Mrs. Kauffmann will be Mrs. William Hill, Mrs. N. E. Mason, Mrs. E. T. Pollock and Mrs. Hubert Dent.

The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels were the honor guests at a dinner last evening, with Chief Naval Constructor and Mrs. David W. Taylor, as hosts. Invited to meet Secretary and Charles Wa

The annual meeting of the Junior Va. former League of the City of Washington will be held today at the home of Miss Frances Carpenter, 1223 Connecticut avenue, Mrs. John William Thompson will preside. The final arrangements for the annual entertainment at Rau-scher's, February 6 and 7, will be dis-

Lleutenant Eager will join the Fourth

Col. and Mrs. William H. Arthur en-Society in Washington.
Gossip of Hostesses.

Col. and Mrs. William H. Arthur entertained at dinner last evening at their residence in Lamont street, having as their guests Surg. Gen. and Mrs. William C. Gorgas, Brig. Gen. and Mrs. William C. Gorgas, Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Isaac W. Littell, and Col. and Mrs. George W. McIver. The table was charmingly described by the color of the col decorated with pink Enchantress carna-tions and mignonette.

Mrs. Lansing, wife of the Secretary of State, will receive this afternoon at her residence in Eighteenth street. She will be assisted by her mother, Mrs. John W. Foster, Mrs. James R. was the ranking guest, and the envoys of the central powers together with the diplomatic representatives of the neutral nations and a few additional guests made up the party of sixty. The dinner paralleled in brilliancy and the observance of diplomatic precedent the dinner given last week with the French ambassa-Rublee, Miss Katherine Overman, Miss Laura Harlan, Mrs. John Harrison Knapp, and Miss Thomas, daughter Knapp, and Miss of Senator Thomas.

Mrs. Garrison, wife of the Secretary of War, is suffering from a slight attack of grip and will not receive this afternoon.

Mrs. Thomas Watt Gregory, wife of the Attorney General, is observing Wednesday afternoon at home during Wednesday afternoon at nome during the season after a pleasantly informal manner. Today she will be assisted by Mrs. Cain, of Dallas, Tex.: Mrs. Dowdy, Miss Hendricks, Miss Lindsay Satter-field, Mrs. N. C. Gregory, Miss Jane Gregory, and her house guest, Miss Cornella Keasbey, of Texas. Cornelia Keasbey, of Texas.

Mrs. Albert Sidney Burleson, wife of the Navy, will receive this afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock. She will be assisted by Mrs. Nathan T. Bryan, Mrs. Charles S. Johnson, Miss Page, Mrs. Henry Breckenridge, Mrs. Adelaide Minister of Sweden and Mme. Ekengren, the minister of Denmark, the minister of Panama, the Minister of Nicaragua and Mme. Chamorro, the minister of Charles S. Johnson, Miss Page, Mrs. and Mme. Chamorro, the minister of the Minister of Persia, the Minister of Haiti and Mme. Menos, the Minister of Cuba and Mme. de Cespedes, the minister of Venezuela, the Minister of Salvador and Mme. Zaldivar, the Chinese Minister and Mrs. Koo. Senator James P. Clarke, Senator John W. Kern, Congressman and Mrs. James R. Mann, the Charge d'Affaires of Turkey and Mme. Hussein Bey, the charge d'affaires of Austria-Hungary, the drafter of Panamata and Mrs. Panamata Charge and Miss Evelyn Cleaves Dandaraires of Austria-Hungary, the Mrs. Daniels' guests.

the Mrs. Daniels guests, and Brs. Lane, wife of the Secretary of tha Bolling, Miss Maude E. Clark, Miss the Secretary of Commerce, will also be Wilson, Miss Helen Woodrow Bones, at home today. Mrs. Redfield will be Mrs. Horatio Armstrong, who is visit Melville A. Clark, and Lieut. Edwin M. sesisted by Mrs. Dudley Hughes. Mrs. Watson.

After dinner Miss Maude E. Clark and Mrs. Sweet, Mrs. Edward Pratt, Mrs. Lincheon which Miss Docothy Adams.

they played "Midsummer Night's Dream." by Mendelssohn, and "Fleurette." by Rogers.

Mrs. A. Gordon Jones is entertaining this afternoon at the second of the series of informal bridge parties she is giving this season. Today Mrs. Frances Robinson is the guest of honor and the bridge party will be followed by a small tea for a number of old friends of Mrs. Robinson, who has returned to Washington, her old home, after an absence of several years. Mrs. Thomas Taliaferro and Mrs. Howard Nyman will preside at the tea table.

Mrs. Colin Livingston will be hostess at tea this afternoon at her residence of the service of the french reading class and their guests at lunch-con. The play will be "Mon Ami Teddy." a comedy by Rivoire and Besnard.

and Miss Ross, of Montreal, who is visiting Miss Livingston.

The program of the Friday afternoon reception at the Congressional Club will include this week a reading by Miss Lois Root Goodnow, daughter of Caldwell and a song recital with Miss Leckle as the soloist. Tea will follow at 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Timothy T. Ansberry is the place in Baltimore on February 19.

Mrs. Timothy T. Ansberry is the place in Baltimore on February 19.

Miss Golinow, who will spend the None Mrs. Victor Kauffmann is entertaining at tea this afternoon. Mrs. Cone Johnson and Mrs. Kauffmann is entertaining at tea this week with Mrs. MacMurray will give on Friday the punch bowl and others assisting the property of Caldwell and a sorged bought of Johnson and Mrs. W. MacMurray will give on Friday inght and at several informal entertaining of gold lace and a paradise plume and a corsage bought of orchids.

Mrs. Harts will preside at the tea this might and at several informal entertaining of gold lace and a paradise plume and a corsage bought of orchids with miss and account of Ansacting in the home of her mother, Mrs. K. A. Potter, 3219 Thirteenth street, the Rev. Bernard Braskamp, pastor of Gurley Memorial Church, officiating in the presence of a small company of intimate friends and relatives. The draw-limit friends and relatives. T

The Minister of Sweden and Mme. Ekengren will entertain eighwen guests at dinner tonight in honor of the Secretary of State and Mrs. Robert Lansing.

Mrs. Fred Dennett and Miss Dorothy Dennett will not be at home tomorrow. but will receive on the afternoon of Thursday, February 3.

Mrs. Claude Swanson will not re-

Items of Interest and Importance of Past, Present, and Future Among Official and Fashionable Folk.

linner tonight to meet Miss Mary dinner tonight to meet Miss Mary Gleaves Daniels, who is visiting the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Josephus Daniels.

Captain and Mrs. Glennon entertained at dinner last flight, having as their guests Admiral and Mrs. Edward H. Gheen, Pay Director and Mrs. E. W. Frazer, Pay Inspector and Mrs. E. W. Frazer, Pay Inspector and Mrs. Charles H. T. Lowndes, Lleut, and Mrs. W. W. Smyth, Miss Florence Gheen, and Major P. S. Brown, U. S. M. C.

Mrs. McVay, wife of Commander Charles B. McVay, will be at home this afternoon for the last time this season. Mrs. Joseph Strauss will be at the tea table.

An interesting wedding took place in Westminster, Md., today, when Miss Hannab Elizabeth McCormick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander H. McCormick, formerly of this city, became the bride of William Horbert Shriver, son of Gen. Herbert T Shriver and the late Mrs. Shriver, of Westminster. Cardinal Gibbon, performed the server. Cardinal Gibbons performed the ceremony, which took place at high noon at St. John's Roman Catholic Church, A breakfast for the members of the two families and a few intimate friends followed at the nome of Mr. and Mrs.
McCormick, in Westminster, Mrs.
Virginia McCormick and Miss Isabel
McCormick to the configer sisters of the McCormick, the younger sisters of the bride, were flower girls, and Robert T. Shriver was his brother's best man. Miss McCorimek, who is a great favorite in society in this city, is a niece

The marriage of Miss los Johanna daughter of Justus von Lengerke, daughter of Justus von Lengerke, and Robert Fleming, of this city, will take place at $ 30 o'clock this evening at the Hillride Presby-terian Church in Orange, N. J. Mr. Fleming and his bride will be at home after April 1, at 1852 Mintwood place.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Marcan Chatard were hosts at a dinner party of twelve covers last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Russell will en-tertain guests at dinner at the Wilhard Monday evening before the Southern Mrs. Riley Gordon, of New York, will come to Washington early in February for a visit to Senator and Mrs. Claude

Rear Admiral and Mrs Richardson Clover will be hosts at a dinner of twenty-six covers tomorrow night at the Army and Navy Club.

Assistant Secretary of War and Mre. Henry Breckenridge will entertain at a dinner of eight covers tonight.

guests were received by Miss M. J. divorce was granted Mary L. Wilson Ramsey, regent; Mrs. M. G. Allen, vice from Harry L. Wilson on the ground of regent; Miss J. G. Prather, Mrs. J. F. desertion. regent; Miss J. G. Prather, Mrs. J. F. Beal, Mrs. M. A. Kaufman, and Mrs. H. L. Hodgkins, former national re-cording secretary.

Mrs. George Thacher Guernsey, State been the guest at the reception, was unexpectedly called home on business requiring immediate attention. A feature of the program was the patriotic address by the Rev. James Shera Montgomery, of the Metropolitan M. E. Church, Mrs. W. S. Dewhirst made the introduction. Retreshments were served. Among the guests were Mrs. Yung Kwai, wife of the counselor of the Chinese legation. Mrs. Burnham former reconst.

Mrs. Colin Livingston will be hostess at tea this afternoon at her residence in Kenyon street in compliment to her daughter. Miss Clairie Livingston. Plink roses and white lifacs will form the contemplace of the tea table and the drawing rooms are gay with pink azaleas and white lifacs. Mrs. Edward Lofter Mrs. Livingston will be assisted by Mrs. South Trimble. Mrs. Robert Taylor, Mrs. Harry Woodyard, Mrs. Edward Clements, Miss Margaret Trimble, Mrs. Robert Taylor, Mrs. Harry Woodyard, Mrs. Edward Clements, Miss Margaret Trimble, Mrs. Roon and Miss Sedgely.

Miss Ross, of Montreal, who is visand Miss Ross are miller. Miss prances Evarts, and Miss Ross, of Montreal who is visand Miss Ross, of Montreal, Mrs. Hoomas Hutchinson. Mrs. Delos Blodgett, Mrs. Thomas Lockwood, Mrs. Edit Koon will be at home Tuesday afternoon.

The program of the Friday afternoon reception at the Congressional Club will include this week a reading by Miss Caldwell and a song recital with Miss Leckie as the soloist. Tea will follow at 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Livingston will be hostess at a prettily appointed luncheon this afternoon in Complement to Miss Mrs. Edward Loft Mrs. Charles McChord, Mrs. Charles Mc

The Secretary of the Navy and Merchant States and Mrs. Rob Italies were the home givest of a shorts. Invited to mest Secretary and Mrs. Robin Italies were Rear Admiral and Mrs. Hollands were the secretary and Mrs. Robin Italies of fourteen covers tomorrow to the following the following of the following of the following the following of the following of the following of the following the following of the follow

Quakers Will Protest Against Preparedness

Col. Charles T. Menoher, after spending a few days with Mrs. Menoher at Fort Myer, has returned to Rock Island arsenal, Mrs. Gardiner W. Kimball, of Philadelphia, has been the guest of Mrs. Menohr for the past two weeks.

Lieut and Mrs. Edwin P. Parker and Lieut, John M. Eager, of Fort Myer, will leave Washington this week for Panama, where Lacutenant Parker and Glennon will have sixteen suests for leaders in the country will speak.

Mrs. Claude Swanson will not receive tomorrow afternoon, but will be at home Thursday, February 3 and 17 Senator and Mrs. Swanson will be at home Thursday, February 3 and 17 Senator and Mrs. Swanson will be at home Thursday, February 3 and 17 Senator and Mrs. Swanson will be at home Thursday, February 3 and 17 Senator and Mrs. Swanson will be at home Thursday, February 3 and 17 Senator and Mrs. Swanson will be at home Thursday, February 3 and 17 Senator and Mrs. Swanson will be at home Thursday, February 3 and 17 Senator and Mrs. Swanson will be at home Thursday, February 3 and 17 Senator and Mrs. Swanson will be at home Thursday, February 3 and 17 Senator and Mrs. Swanson will be at home Thursday, February 3 and 17 Senator and Mrs. Swanson will be at home Thursday, February 3 and 17 Senator and Mrs. Swanson will be at home Thursday, February 3 and 17 Senator and Mrs. Swanson will be at home Thursday, February 3 and 17 Senator and Mrs. Swanson will be at home Thursday, February 3 and 17 Senator and Mrs. Swanson will be at home Thursday, February 3 and 17 Senator and Mrs. Swanson will be at home Thursday, February 3 and 17 Senator and Mrs. Swanson will be at home Thursday, February 3 and 17 Senator and Mrs. Swanson will be at home Thursday, February 3 and 17 Senator and Mrs. Swanson will be at home Thursday, February 3 and 17 Senator and Mrs. Swanson will be voiced by Quakers of the Atlan Coast States at a mass meeting to be voiced by Quakers of the Atlan Coast States at a mass meeting to Coast States at a mass meeting to be voiced by Quakers of the Atlan Coast States at a mass meet A protest against preparedness is to be voiced by Quakers of the Atlantic Margaret Myer. Coast States at a mass meeting to be Ordinances Introduced in City Council Would Authorize Expenditure of $25,000.

ALEXANDRIA, Jan. 26.-Street im provements to cost $25,000 are proposed last night and referred to the committees on streets and finance. One resolution is for a nineteen-foot bituminous roadway on Russell road, extending through Rosemont to Braddock Heights. Another is for a similar road on King street from the end of the present vitrified brick to Janney's lane. Each would cost $9,000.

The third provides for a roadway of tar macadam on Duke street, from the Stone bridge to the railway viaduct, to cost $5,300. The committee on streets reported that the city engineer's estimate for the resurfacing of north Washington street, from Wythe street today, was postponed until August 1 Councilman Desmond said more than taps last year and approximately $1,500 in the current month.

Preliminary steps toward the city taking over the Alexandria Light Infantry's tee on finance and public property was empowered to employ an attorney to prepare a deed for the property and take it over, provided that the cost the city does not exceed $3,600.

R. H. Carlin, M. S. Keen, William Westley, and Charles D. Wood, of this city, have been appointed to the memcommittee of the Navy League

The banquet of the Alexandria Autobuilding is expected to draw together all the automobilists of the city, and several invited guests. The speakers will be W. C. Adamson, of Georgia; Charles C. Carlin, of this city; George P. Coleman, State highway commissions. All through Administration circles in Washington one finds the most seute brought in a possibility that has not been much considered. "Who realizes," he demanded, "that events are marching right toward the possibility of the Scandinavian nations mobile Club tonight in the Westminster P. Coleman, State highway commissioner, and A. T. Batchelder and E. L. Ferguson, of the American Automobile Association. The committee in charge is composed of William A. Moore, jr., It is obvious that the President can-Harry Hammond and H. D. Kirk.

spectacular fire, the damage is estimated at $5,000 and gaugers in the internal revenue a service.

Mrs. Kate Waller Bairett and Miss Kitty Steele Barrett, who went to Wide-water. Va., to attend the wedding of Miss Lifa Waller Barrett and Edward In the corporation court vesterday a for burial. Congressman Fess of Ohio will speak at the laymen's meeting in the Rich-mond Theater next Sunday afternoon.

Advance copies of the "Campaigns Advance copies of the "Campaigns and lattles of the Army of Northern Virginia" have reached this city. The author is George Wise, of this city, also the author of the "History of the Seventeenth Virginia Infantry."

Schneeweiss, is in charge of the parish, mere party men have seldom been, to get a bigger estimate placed on this Hegarty; overseer, G. A. Myer, steward, ard, Arthur Campbell: gate keeper, Harry Peck; assistant steward, G. Burlingame; chaplain, H. Carruthers; treasurer, Jochapiain, it. Carrethers, treasurer, Joseph L. Shipley; secretary, Mrs. J. L. Lane; flora, Mrs. A. Hall; pomona, Miss Castella; ceres, Miss Susic Campbell; lady assistant steward, Miss

The ladies' missionary society of the PLANNING TO IMPROVE Wilson Speech-Making BUSINESS HIGH TO ALEXANDRIA STREETS Swing Is for National, Not Political, Reasons Lists of Graduates of Two and Acute Concern Felt in Government Circles Whether President Can Make Country Understand Grave Situation Which Confronts Nation Without Overstepping Proprieties.

By JUDSON C. WELLIVER.

"President Wilson's speech-making swing around the circle is made for national, not political, reasons

"The President knows, better than anybody else, how grave a situation the country confronts in its relations with the rest of the

"But, simply because his office gives him the best possible knowledge, it also imposes upon him the necessity of the utmost discretion in every utterance.

"It may be said that if this speech-making appeal to the nation does not arouse the country to :ealize that something vastly bigger than a national political campaign is in issue, then the tour will be a

CONCERNING ADMINISTRATION CIRCLES

These remarks were made, with in- that. tense carnestness, by a high official of when so much depended on free international commercial movements as today. The very States which yawn over the possibility that this country has any oncern about Europe's war are rais ing a wheat crop, for the next harvest, bigger than ever before. Suppose when that crop is ready to sell—hundreds of millions of bushels more than we need at home—there is no way to get it The war and its present and prospective effects on this county, had been inder discussion. The speaker did not say that the impending danger to the lations; but the manner in which he velopments of the world's shipping sit-uation knows that we are moving toturned, suddenly and vehemently, from discussion of the war to the remarks ward just so serious a situation as quoted, left the decided impression that that was what he meant

It is obvious that the President can-not get on a platform at Kansas City or Tombstone or Kalamazoo and di-vulge the confidential diplomatic cortwenty-four hours, practically destroy-ed the big coal chute in the Southern He cannot say "I know that we have railway freight yards in the southeast-twice been so near war that the issue The depended on the answer another coun-try would make to us:" nor can be declare that there are questions pend The Civil Service Commission will ing that may bring us to the same hold an examination here March 4 to embarrassment, with poorer chance secure eligibles for the positions of for a peaceful outcome. He must not deputy collectors, clerks, storekeepers, name the countries with which our name the countries with which our relations are menacing. He must use generalization and all carnestness in mpressing his hearers are making products, goods, raking crops, growing meats, for the Old World demand. Supposing we find ourselves unable to deliver; and we may. It is no fanciful notion." Country Does Not Understand. And if, after he has done that, the hearers go away believing that he is merely talking for party political advantage, the effort will have been a failure. Will the country be willing to be lieve he is talking for the nation, not merely for the Demogratic party? That is what his associates in Ad-The remains of George L. Carter were That is what his associates in Adtaken to Brownsville. Md., this morning ministration leadership would like to spread feeling of depression over the country's seeming inability to interpret and understand the world situntion and this nation's part in it.

This sentiment is not confined to Democrats, or to party leaders. It is to be found among men of all parties. Republicans are disposed to blame the Administration for failing to employ its authority and prestige A meeting in the interest of the relief of the Hebrew war sufferers will be held at the Elks' Auditorium tonight. The sepeakers will be Senator Claude A. Swanson of Virginia; Charles C. Carlin, of this city; Miss Mabel Boardman, of the American Red Cross; Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, Dr. Abram Simon, of Washington; the Rev. E. V. Register, and Dr. Louis Smet.

ANACOSTIA.

The Rev. Charles M. Bart of St. Teresa's Roman Catholic Church, is in Florida, where he went to regain his health. The assistant pastor, the Rev. health. The assistant pastor, the Rev. leaders are anxious, to an extent that Electa Chapter, No. 2, O. E. S., met appeal of the President, View of the War Detached. It is one of the characteristic weaka suit of midnight blue velvet trimmed with skunk fur, a white satin hat with trimmings of gold lace and a paradise plume and a corsage bouquet of orchids and lifes of the valley. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Carley left immediately after the ceremony for a Northern trip. I poin their return, they will reside at 319 Thirteenth street.

Miss Annabel Stockman entertained at a lipen shower in honor of Miss Police.

Manacostia Council, No. 16, Jr. O. U. A. M., last night admitted eight new derstand. The American people have members and acted on a number of new applications. Plans were furthered for the class initiation at Reno Council on ships among European states; have had America were made. About forty women will join.

The Ladies' Guild of Emmanuel present world-situation, and the intinesses of democratic government, this Burchell's "Bouquet" Coffee, 25c lb. Coast States at a mass meeting to be held tonight at the Friends' Meeting House. 1811 I street. Prominent Quakers from all sections of the East have come to Washington to attend the meeting and discuss the preparedness campaign. They have invited a number of members of Congress to attend the meeting. It is stated that the ablest Quaker leaders in the country will speak.

The ladies' missionary society of the First Presbyterian Church held a Study class this afternoon.

District No. 2 of the Prince Georges County Sunday School Association held an institute at the Berwyn Presbyterian Church last 16th. Those who spoke were Mrs. Limore Powel, of Washington, and W. Ball.

1 to Respond to the Ladies' missionary society of the First Presbyterian Church held a Study class this afternoon.

Almost a Breakfast in Itself

N. W. BURCHELL of Washington and W. Ball.

nounced. Class night exercises of the four-year mid-winter graduating class at Business High School will be held tomorrow of both the two and four-year classes will be held Monday evening. Both will be in the auditorium of the school Graduates in the two-year course folart Bowden, Charles William Wood Colier, Harry Jerome Cogswell, Adwir Wigfall Green, Albert Marion Joseph, Francis Joseph Kelly, Cleland Conway McDevitt, John Frederic Richter, ir., Maurice Saks, William Webster Saun-ders, Walter Edward Scott, and Carl Robert Weaver; Ethel Veronica Atwell,

HOLD CLASS NIGHT

Four-Year Courses Are An-

Robert Weaver: Ethel Veronica Atwell, Anna Bertha Broechin, Katherine Marguerite Byron, Henriette Cissell, Edna Irene Cooke, Annie Connerthite, Mary Alva Crimmins, Marie Elaine Gallahorn, Carolyn Elizabeth Kendrick, Katherine Krupsaw, Helen Marguerite Lanigan, Katherine McClellan Leckie, Margaret Havenet Lewis, Martha Louise Lewis, Clara Lohse, Mina Marie Pairo, Ida Cecella Paxton, Ethelee Estelle Perry, Esther Comfort Rodier, Louise Marie Schwarzmann, Marie Catherine Shea, Blanche Mary Slattery, Helen Sperling, Helen Alice Strudley, Olive Mary Tracey, Hattle Mae Updike, Frances agenheim, Nannie Virginia Walling, Edith Marion Welty, Evelyn Mildred Wiley, ion Welty, Evelyn Mildred Wiley, Edith Nellie Woodbridge, and Elise Ernestine Zuberano.

Graduates in the four-year course fol-ow: William Lee Culligan, Arthur Knabe Fox, Charles Morton Fry, Irwin Jensberg, Jacob Goldberg, Eenjamin laffa, William Charles LeClair, Frank Henry Marks, Walter Lowry Miller, and Jacob Sokol: Marian Estelle Eisenstein, Harriet Porter Ferris, Edith Marie Friedrichs, Marie Josephine Gardner Sadye Ruth Goldman, Minnie Esther Gorman, Ida Eleanor Lewis, Hilda Ruth Reagle, and Rose Wolf.

Automobiles in Crash.

An automobile owned -by O. D. Zantzinger, and a taxical driven by Leo P. Connors were badly damaged ie a collision at Tenth and G streets are employed in effort to impress the fact that America has a deeper and more immediate concern about the war than seems to be realized by most people on this side the water. President Wilson has cut out for himself the task of making the nation realize, and pubic men of both parties-that is, the men who themselves appreciate conditions— are anxiously waiting to learn whether he will succeed. In effect, a fair analysis of the Demo ratic leaders' discussions of this ques-ion leads to this: Roosevelt has been using all his power and influence Wilson is going to try the same Can Wilson add anything e where Roosevelt, thus far, has fa Neither Reesevelt nor Wilson, I judge, would be willing to admit that they are both trying, in this regard, to do the same thing. But they really are. the same thing. But they really are. Getting the country awakened is the Such illustrations as the foregoing first task.

Moodward & Lothrop

January Clearance of Women's Suits

15 Exclusive Suits at $45 Each.

Formerly Priced Up to $95.

These are very elegant

"Anybody who is watching the de-neasure: he was talking about genera

if they should come in, their ports would be blockaded by the British fleet in an instant: their ships on every sea would be hunted down, captured, sunk

Ship Famine Possible.

"Do you realize that that would mean the withdrawal of millions of tons of merchant shipping that the world ab solutely must have in operation? Why, to take the shipping of Norway, Sweden, and Holland off the seas would be to create a ship famine that would mean a would suffer more than any other, be-cause America is doing more business with Europe than anybody else. We being dragged into this war?

American business

or interned

commerciai crisis,

and exclusive suits, including French velveteen, satin, velour de laine, chiffon broadcloth, duvetyne, Scotch mixtures. The colors are bottle green, African brown, green mixtures, brown mixtures and the popular plain colors of blue and black. There are Russian blouse, belted and full flare models, and many are fur trimmed. The size: range from 34 to 42.

Fine Dress and Semi-Dress Suits At $35 Each. Were Up to $57.50

Three-quarter, Russian, Belted, Full Flare and Gathered-back Coats, some with detachable belts and some with plaits; skirts are stylishly made. The materials are the best and the colors latest, in all regular sizes. Mostly one-of-a-kind styles remain. There are the famous Stylish Stout Suits, made expressly for stout women; fur trimmed, braid and plain tailored. Sizes 34 to 48.

Suits at $25 Each. Were Up to $45.

Imported gabardines, poplins, men's wear serges, broadcloths and whipcords are the materials, in African brown, gray, bottle green, navy blue and black. Sizes range from 34 to 52. Suitable for wear now and during the early spring months.

Suits at $14.75 Each. Were Up to $35.

This lot numbers in it about 50 Suits, comprising gabardines, whipcords, poplins and broadcloths, and they are belted, tailored and full box styles, many of which are fur trimmed and some neatly braided or discreetly left plain. Bottle green, African brown, plum, navy and black are the popular colors. Sizes 34 to 44.